

MODERN EGYPT PROJECT

The Modern Egypt Project at the British Museum brings the museum's world famous collection of Egyptian objects and artefacts into the twenty first century.

LOCATION

Edmond J. Safra Lecture Theatre
King's College London
Strand Building
Ground Floor
London WC2R 2LS
Entrance across Saint Mary-le-Strand
Church

DATE

25 April 2017

TIME

Doors open at 6.30PM

PROJECT CURATOR

Mohamed Elshahed will introduce this pioneering project and share insights about the collecting process, present some of the objects in this new collection and shed light on their historical significance and meaning.

KEEPER OF ANCIENT EGYPT AND SUDAN AT THE BRITISH MUSEUM

Neal Spencer will introduce the talk and place the new collection in context of earlier collections.

FIND OUT MORE

modernegypt.eventbrite.co.uk

The British Museum

