

The Egyptian Bureau for Cultural & Educational Affairs in London has the honour to invite you To

In the Steps of The Holy Family in Egypt

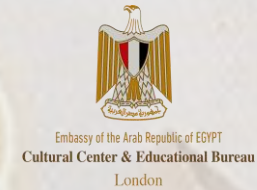

*A talk by His Eminence
Archbishop Angaelos*

The Coptic Orthodox Archbishop of London

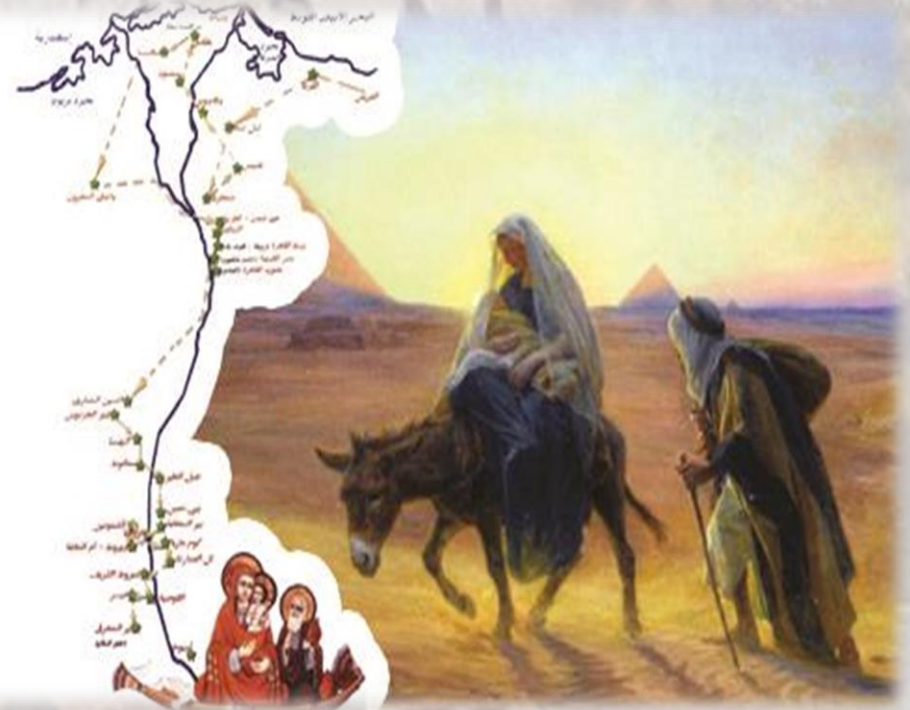

This year, concurrently with the Coptic annual celebration of the Holy Family's visit to Egypt, a number of projects have been initiated by several Ministries to plot the Holy Journey with the key sites on route. The Holy Synod of the Coptic Orthodox Church expressed in May this year its appreciation for this sincere effort to honour the Holy Family's journey, securing it as an important pilgrimage route.

His Eminence will speak about the pivotal role of Egypt in history as a place of refuge for the Infant Christ and His Family, and as a Holy Land of sacred pilgrimage

*On Monday 23rd July 2018 at 7pm
Reception starts at 6.30pm*

Mr. Amr El Ezabi, the Egyptian Tourism Counsellor, will then be briefing us on the Holy Family's journey in Egypt as a cultural and tourist project.
